
The Holocaust ↗

Wikipedia • The Holocaust, known in Hebrew as the Shoah, was the genocide of European Jews during World War II. From 1941 to 1945, Nazi Germany and its collaborators systematically murdered around six million Jews across German-occupied Europe, approximately two-thirds of Europe's Jewish population.

In the spring of 1943, an American banker traveled freely through Nazi Germany, held meetings with Reichsbank officials in Berlin, and boarded a German escort vessel back to Switzerland. Nazi U-boats had standing orders not to sink his ship. His name was Thomas McKittrick, and he was the president of the most powerful international bank in the world.

This is not a conspiracy theory. Every institution, every document, and every name in this video is a matter of verified historical record — sitting in the National Archives, in declassified Treasury memos, and in the minutes of the Nuremberg proceedings.

What you won't find in most history books is the full story of how Wall Street bankrolled the economic conditions that brought Hitler to power, how Standard Oil shared critical war technology with Nazi Germany while withholding it from the US military, how Chase National Bank kept its Paris branch open under Nazi occupation and reported growing profits to Manhattan, how the Bank for International Settlements laundered looted Nazi gold throughout the war, how Prescott Bush — grandfather of two US presidents — had his assets seized under the Trading with the Enemy Act, and how a Swedish banking dynasty quietly played both sides and walked away to build a $60 billion empire.

Most of these men were never prosecuted. Most were promoted. And the systems they built are still running today.

This is what economic history actually looks like.

If you want to understand how power really works — not just how it presents itself — subscribe. New videos every week on the financial dynasties, hidden institutions, and economic forces that shaped the modern world.

Bankers build jails around others while they sit in ivory towers.

The reason the bankers would war against Hitler was because he didn't want to do business with them any longer. He began printing his own currency and began building everything himself with his army.

I'm not saying he was good by any means. The reasons why WW2 began in the first place are alot different than what History tells us to believe in.

What I read in book called Windswept Lies of War keeps replaying in my head. Some parts feel like they were never meant to be published.

Never forget that all wars are banker wars. All revolutions are banker revolutions. All booms and depressions are banker booms and depressions. All western governments are banker owned governments. And the list of subversion goes on and on and on.

General Smedley Butler was approached by the bankers to head a military coup of the US govt and take over as a figure head as he was a two time medal of honor winner. He exposed the consipiracy and the entire congressional record of the investigation was kept quiet. This shoudl be taught in schools.

Bankers funded ALL sides. They could NOT lose.
Wars are a blatant de-population strategy.

About ten years ago I went into Waterstones and asked for books about the finances of WW2. The man checked and was astonished that there were none. Something is being hidden. This presentation is brilliant

This is how we can have war without any of the people who start it or could stop it having to feel the true effect.

IT IS TRULY HARD TO BELIEVE THAT THE ROTHCHILDS WAS NEVER MENTION IN THIS STORY BUT IT IS NORMAL TO NOT TALK ABOUT THE ROTHCHILDS WHEN MONEY CRIMES ARE BEING TOLD AND IMPOSSIBLE TO BELIEVE WHEN PROFITS ARE TO MADE THE ROTHCHILDS WOULD PASS ON THE OPPURTUNITY

I always wondered why Vichy France was created and allowed to function but it all made sense when I discovered the Rothschilds holed up there during the war. No death camps for that family.
